YOUNG DEMOCRATS SCARE OPPOSITION

"Independent" Bosses Make Frantic Effort to Secure Men to March in Their Parade—
Report Money Being Used.

Panic stricken and frantic the bosses of the "independent" party ransacked the city from one end to another Friday in an effort to pad out their parade planned for Saturday night. The young democrats have thrown a scare into their ranks. Petition after petition was put into the hands of the members of the "whispering brigade" and they were sent broadcast begging men to march with the "independents." Rumors that money had been offered were heard on every hand.

The young democrats were amazed or rather surprised when they learned of it. They stated that they never expected to compete with the "independents" in regard to the parade. They said that they, on their own initiative as they are without the help of the democratic city committee could not expect to stage a parade to compare with the one at the command of the large amount of money on hand by the "independents." They said their parade was to be a good fellowship march of their supporters and of the young men of the city as a tribute to M. W. Mix and the democratic ticket. They stated that it would contain no one but the young democrats of the city and probably some of their older friends. Under no circumstances, they said, would they have in their parade men paid to march or automobiles or the like hired to swell up the appearance of the line of march.

Nevertheless the independents are scared. They are prostituting every means to the securing of an additional man to walk under their standard Saturday night. Their efforts are proving futile. Men refuse their agents and say they will not march for any other consideration than principle. One of the petitions was circulated by a friend of the "whispering brigade" in one of the departments of a local factory. Of the 166 men employed in this department only six men signed the petition stating that they would march in the parade. Like failure is meeting all of the agents. Their monster parade is doomed to be composed of but the scattering few still faithful to the triple Ralph combination and the shouting hundreds secured in the same manner as the large crowd was secured in the last national election.

Meanwhile the young democrats are amused at their frantic antics. They say they will march and burn their red fires and listen to their band but that they absolutely and finally refuse to swell their parade with anyone but those who will march for the sake of paying honor to the democratic ticket and party.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS FAVOR MIX FOR MAYOR

Students of Mishawaka high school are taking an active interest in civic affairs and particularly in the present city election. The sentiment among the young men and women of this institution is decidedly in favor of Melville W. Mix.

Enthusiasm ran high even at the social affair given at Castle hall Friday evening by high school students. There is a great American flag on one wall of the hall and between the program of dances several young men pinned a large Mix poster among the stars and the flag. The musicians in the orchestra saluted the raising of the banner with a great amount of noise from the drums and instruments, while practically the entire assemblage of over 100 students cheered lustily.

Firm in its belief that the party's nominee for a councilmanic office should come from the ranks of the laboring man, the Democracy of Mishawaka has placed as its candidate in the Third ward George P. Zimmerman.

Mr. Zimmerman is an ideal candidate for the council. Educated in the school of experience when circumstances denied him books, he has won an enviable place in the esteem and regard of his fellow townsmen, especially his Third ward neighbors who know him best.

A resident of the Third ward practically his entire life, Mr. Zimmerman is peculiarly fitted to represent it in the council. He is well acquainted with its developments and its present and future wants.

Without a mother's counsel, who died when he was but 8 years old, George Zimmerman is in all the phrase implies—a self made man. He left school at 13 and learned the printer's trade in the local offices of the Democrat and Enterprise. He has been connected with the latter office for the past 16 years.

Mr. Zimmerman is the father of three children. With his family he resides at the corner of Fourth and Taylor streets. He is an ideal representative of the Common Council—Mr. Third Ward Voter. —Adv.
